Oh, Dr. Deerson! I'm so glad I found you!
I need urgent medical assistance!

I've told you already, otter. I'm a history professor, not a physician.
Please, doc! It's an emergency!
What's going on, Mom?

You see, I've got this weird, itchy rash on my belly.
Can you take a look at it?
I think it might be serious!

Eugh. I mean, it looks like you just crawled through poison ivy or something.
But like I said, I'm really not qualified to diagnose—

Give it to me straight, doc. Is it necrotizing fasciitis?!
What?
It's eating my flesh, isn't it?!
Uhh... I don't—

I'm sure that it is! Just look at it closer!
You're a hypochondriac, otter!
LOOK AT IT!!
